

Jason Kocherhans

ADVISORY BOARD

Jason Kocherhans, is a certified Master Coach who has been coaching and mentoring since 2011. As a coach, he has helped hundreds of individuals and companies clarify their vision and accomplish their goals. With years of experience working in both large and small companies as well as leading his own entrepreneurial ventures, Jason has seen what does and doesn't work. He constantly seeks for truth and best practices that can be incorporated into the methodologies that are taught and lived by his team.

Jason has extensive experience in system administration and product management, so even the most complex questions related to technology, people, processes and packaging can be solved.

Strong Fathers. Strong Families. Defending Freedom.