

Katie Anderson

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Katie brings experience from a versatile career in marketing communications, technical writing, editing, event planning, corporate training, and teaching. She has also taken on web design, video editing, and podcast production. She holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in writing and has previously edited two books and taught writing at BYU-Idaho as an adjunct faculty member.

Despite a successful career, Katie chose to leave the workforce to become a full-time mom. Her greatest joy lies in teaching and leading her children as she raises the mothers and fathers of tomorrow. She loves working with and supporting Fathers For Freedom from home so she can be at the crossroads of their lives.

Strong Fathers. Strong Families. Defending Freedom.
